

Lawrence P. King Award for Excellence in the Field of Bankruptcy NOMINATION FORM

About the King Award

Given to recognize that lawyer, judge, teacher or legislator who exemplifies the best in scholarship, advocacy, judicial administration or legislative activities in the field of bankruptcy. The recipient will exemplify the standards set by Professor King during a life-time of devotion to the practice and practitioners of bankruptcy. She or he will have made a lasting contribution to the improvement of commerce and to the fair and ethical treatment of debtors, creditors and the public at large. The award will recognize a career, not an event. The award will be presented at the Commercial Law League Annual Breakfast held at the 2007 National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges. Established in 2001, this award has been presented to Professor Lawrence King (in memoriam, 2001), Professor Elizabeth Warren (2002), The Honorable Joe Lee (2003), Professor David Epstein (2004), The Honorable A. Thomas Small (2005) and George Treister (2006).

Commercial Law League of America

The Commercial Law League of America (CLLA), founded in 1895, is the nation's oldest organization of attorneys and other experts in credit and finance actively engaged in the field of commercial law, bankruptcy and reorganization. Its membership exceeds 3,000 individuals. The CLLA has long been associated with the representation of creditor interests, while at the same time seeking fair, equitable and efficient administration of bankruptcy cases for all parties in interest.

Bankruptcy Section

The Bankruptcy Section of the CLLA is made up of approximately 1,000 bankruptcy lawyers and bankruptcy judges from virtually every state in the United States. Its members include practitioners with both small and large practices, who represent divergent interests in bankruptcy cases. The CLLA has testified on numerous occasions before Congress as experts in the bankruptcy and reorganization fields.
