

AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

Nomination Form

The Creditors' Rights Section of the Commercial Law League of America is seeking nominations for its Award of Excellence, which was established to recognize outstanding contributions in the field of law affecting creditors' rights. The recipient must be a lawyer, legislator, professor of law, or judge, whose work has substantially and positively made an impact on creditors' rights. Nominations are being accepted through July 1, 2005, and should be submitted to the CLLA, including an explanation of those qualities and works which qualify the nominee for consideration. The Award will be presented at the annual Midwestern Meeting of the League held in Chicago in April 2006.

The Commercial Law League of America is the nation's oldest organization of attorneys and other experts engaged in the field of commercial law, bankruptcy and reorganization. The League's objectives include elevating the standard and improving the practice of Commercial Law; encouraging an honorable course of dealing among its members and in the profession at large; and promoting uniformity of legislation in matters affecting Commercial Law. The Creditors' Rights Section shares in these objectives, and strives to promote the highest standards of professionalism, integrity and excellence in the field of creditors' rights while advancing the interests of creditors. Candidates for the Award of Excellence should have made substantial career contributions to further these goals.
